About Puppy's New Family

Why are you interested in finding a new puppy?

Is this your first dog?

Is this your first time raising a new puppy?

Do you have other pets in your home? If so please explain.

Have you had a Weimaraner before? If not what attracts you to the breed?

Do you already have a veterinarian? If so who?

What do you plan on doing with your dog?

Certification as a therapy dog:

- You will find useful links on the website that can answer most of your questions regarding the activities above. As the Breeder I am willing to show my puppies if that is agreed upon.

Please tell us a little about where puppy will live as a puppy (we know circumstances change)

Type of housing:

Rent or own:

Do you have a fence at least 6 feet tall:

Is any head of household serving in the US Military?

How many adults in your household:

How many children in your home and ages:

Does anyone in the home have allergies to dogs:

Where will puppy spend most of its time?

How will puppy be trained?

Are you willing to crate train your puppy?

Will your puppy be an inside or outside dog?

How many hours will puppy be left at home (without a potty break)?

Is this puppy being purchased as a surprise gift?

Have you or anyone in the puppy's household ever been arrested or charged or convicted of animal cruelty or hoarding?

Ownership Commitment

This litter will be available to go home on the date specified on the website. Will you be able to take this puppy home within 2-3 days of this date?

Will you be able to pick up your puppy in person in Fontana, California?

Do you agree to give us follow-up reports and photos from time to time?

Do you agree to contact us in case that you need to re-home this puppy for whatever reason? The puppy must be returned to SilverBay- see contract.

As much as we believe all of our puppies will excel in all activities we do not require them to do so; we do require that our puppies go to the very best homes. If you are open to compete with your Weimaraner and it's your first time, we are here to help you along the way.*

Thank you,
SilverBay Weimaraners
